This course examines the ways in which the law has historically structured hierarchies of political, economic, and social power in in the United States. Beginning with an in-depth discussion of the nature and definition of civil rights, we will analyze the roles and limits of the U.S. state in guaranteeing and unevenly distributing rights to its citizens in key legal documents such as the Declaration of Independence and Bill of Rights. Through the close analysis of specific legal cases covering a wide-range of issues including slavery, settler colonialism, U.S. expansionism and imperialism, Jim Crow segregation and post-1954 judicial desegregation, affirmative action, immigration restriction, racial profiling and racially disparate criminal sentencing, and the curtailment of civil rights after September 11, we will discuss the ways in which the law has institutionalized differently racialized and gendered legal subjects. In so doing, we will reflect upon whether and to what extent the U.S. state has fallen short of protecting the rights to “life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness” for all, both in the historical context and in the contemporary context of “color-blind constitutionalism.”

Attendance and Participation

I expect you to attend all class meetings and participate actively. I will take points off for every absence (I only make exceptions if you bring me a valid medical or written excuse). I will also take points off if you don’t participate in class and show me that you’re keeping up to date with the reading and the discussion. If you are a shy person and do not feel as comfortable as others speaking in class, please try to make up for this by stopping by my office hours for a chat, which also counts toward participation or by emailing me your questions or observations about the readings or lectures.

2pp. Reading Responses (5 of them)

You will have to complete five 2pp. long “reading responses” over the course of the quarter. These will consist of reflections relating the readings of that week to the topics covered in class and in the rest of the syllabus. These will be graded on a 5 point system: a 5 being an A, a 4 being a B, a 3 being a C, a 2 being a D and an 1 being an F. The due dates for these are as follows:

Midterm

You will receive a take home midterm consisting of various essay questions based on the readings and topics covered in the first half of the quarter. I will give you more details about what it will look like two weeks before it’s due.

The Midterm will be due in Turnitin.com (via the TED Blackboard) on Sunday, May 4th at 11:59pm
8-10pp. Final Paper

Instead of a final exam, you will have to submit a final paper by June 12, 6:00pm (our designated final exam time). As with previous assignments, you will upload a copy of your final paper to Turnitin.com via the TED Blackboard. I will give you various prompts for this, or you can choose to write about your own original topic, as long as you clear it with me at least two weeks before the paper is due.

Late Work Policy

All papers will be uploaded to Turnitin.com via our course’s blackboard website (i.e., ted.ucsd.edu). Late submission of assignments will be accepted only in verifiable emergencies, and only by arrangement with me prior to 2:00 p.m. on the due date. Assignments turned in late without prior approval will be graded down 7 points for each 24-hour period past the due date (no exceptions).

Academic Dishonesty

Scholastic dishonesty is any act by a student that misrepresents the student’s own academic work or that compromises the academic work of another. Examples include cheating on assignments or exams, unauthorized collaboration on assignments or exams, sabotaging another student’s work and plagiarizing. Plagiarism is presenting someone else’s work as your own, intentionally or not, by failing to put quotation marks around passages taken from a text or failing to properly cite quoted material. Any act of academic dishonesty may result in one’s failing the course.

My Email Policy

Please email me with questions and/or concerns about the course. I will respond within the next 24 hours. If you have an important personal question such as inquiring about a grade or class discussion, please visit me during office hours or schedule an appointment with me.

A Note About Reading Volume

Research indicates that the average U.S. college student reads about 20 pages per hour. As you will notice below, I’ve assigned about 80-100 pages of reading per week (i.e., 4-5 hours of reading per week). Please make sure that you stay on top of the readings.

Majoring or Minoring in Ethnic Studies at UC San Diego

Many students take an Ethnic Studies course because the topic is of great interest or because of a need to fulfill a social science, non-contiguous, or other college requirement. Often students have taken three or four classes out of “interest” yet have no information about the major or minor and don’t realize how close they are to a major, a minor, or even a double major. An Ethnic Studies major is excellent preparation for a career in law, public policy, government and politics, journalism, education, public health, social work, international relations, and many other careers. If you would like information about the Ethnic Studies major or minor at UCSD, please contact Daisy Rodriguez, our Ethnic Studies Undergraduate Advisor, at 858-534-3277 or d1rodriguez@ucsd.edu.
