

Intermediate Macroeconomics

Course: Economics 110A
Professor: Dr. Mark Thoma
Office: Economics 324
Office Hours: W 1:00-3:00
Phone: (858) 534-6787
Email: mthoma@ucsd.edu
Web Page: <http://mthoma.ucsd.edu/Economics110A/>

TA's , Office Hours, Location, and Email Address:

Juri Marcucci	M	10:00-12:00	Economics 108	jmarcucc@weber.ucsd.edu
James Mitchell	T/Th	2:00- 3:00	Economics 120	jsmitche@weber.ucsd.edu
Tatsuyoshi Okimoto	F	10:00-12:00	Economics 122	taokimot@weber.ucsd.edu
David Vera	W	10:00-12:00	Economics 118	davera@weber.ucsd.edu

Text: Macroeconomics by N. Gregory Mankiw (5th Ed.)

Tests: There will be three exams, a midterm in class on Monday, October 21st, a second midterm in class on Wednesday, November 13th, and a comprehensive final on Wednesday, December 11th from 11:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Practice Problem Sets: Problem sets will be assigned periodically. These will not be graded. The exams will be drawn largely from the material covered in the practice problem sets.

Grading: Grades will be assigned according to your relative standing in the class. The midterms are worth 30% each and the final 40%.

Tentative Course Outline:

Introduction

The Science of Macroeconomics	Ch. 1
The Data of Macroeconomics	Ch. 2

Income, Unemployment, and Inflation in the Long Run

National Income: Where it Comes From and Where It Goes	Ch. 3
Money and Inflation	Ch. 4
Unemployment	Ch. 6

Short Run Economic Fluctuations

Introduction to Economic Fluctuations	Ch. 9
Aggregate Demand I	Ch. 10
Aggregate Demand II	Ch. 11
Aggregate Supply	Ch. 13

Macroeconomic Policy

Stabilization Policy	Ch. 14
Government Debt	Ch. 15