

ECON 87: Economics and the Transfer Student
Fall 2007, Thursdays, 2:00-3:30, Sequoyah Hall 244

Instructor: Dr. Famulari Office: Econ 221 E-mail: mfamulari@ucsd.edu

Date	Week	Topic
9/27/07	0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Survey of student backgrounds, current classes and career goals. • My immediate recommendations • Visit to Sequoyah 245 to meet (and ask questions of) the economics department Undergraduate Advisors: Kimberley Newmark and Marisol Nierva-Magnano
10/4/07	1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is a research University and how does it differ from a Junior or Community College? • The Honors Track and is it for you? • ODE (the International Economics Honor Society) and is it for you? • Visit by a representative from the Undergraduate Economics Society
10/11/06	2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Visit from Jill McAnear from the Academic Internship Program office • Undergraduate Research Opportunities • Interacting with economics faculty in large classes. Finding smaller economics classes. • What are the fields in Economics? What are the fields of the UCSD Faculty?
10/16/06	3	Visit to Library- Meet at Library Walk entrance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Presentation by Adele Barsh, the Economics and Business Librarian. Overview of the library and on-line resources for economic research (data and articles) • Best semi-quiet places to study on Campus
10/25/06	4	Visit to Career Services Center (CSC) – Meet at the Front Desk <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What services are offered by CSC? • Career opportunities for those with BA/BS from the UCSD Economics Department • Advanced degree options for those with BA/BS from the UCSD Economics Department
10/30/06	5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Visit with an economics graduate student. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ What is the life of a graduate student like? ○ What is it like to be teaching assistant? • Visit from students who took Econ 87: Econ and the Transfer Student in Fall 06.