POLI 145C: INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AFTER THE COLD WAR: THEORY AND PROSPECT

Course Description: The nature of international politics appears to have changed dramatically since the end of the Cold War in 1989. This course applies different theoretical approaches to enhance our understanding of the new international environment, the future prospects for peace and war, and current problems of foreign policy. Although this course expects no prior knowledge in the fields of international relations or foreign policy, familiarity with concepts presented in POLI 12 (Introduction to International Relations) or POLI 142A (United States Foreign Policy) will be useful.

Course Objectives: This course will integrate theoretical material from the field of international relations and comparative foreign policy so that students will be able to:

1. Evaluate the extent to which conceptions of security (human security vs. national security) and threat have changed in the aftermath of the Cold War.
2. Compare, contrast, and evaluate state responses to current international challenges, particularly as it relates to conceptions of power and security.
3. Identify the extent to which non-state actors are relevant in the post Cold War discourse.
4. Determine whether (or how) international relations fundamentally differs in the post Cold War era.

Course Grading/Assignments: The grade for this course will be calculated as follows:

- Course Participation: 10%
- Midterm: 45%
- Final Examination: 45%

Participation: Students are expected to attend lecture having completed the assigned reading and able to participate in course discussions. Current events discussion will occur at the beginning of each lecture, so students are strongly encouraged to be on time and ready to participate. Students are particularly encouraged to read the Economist or another reputable news source on a regular basis. Please note that this list is not exhaustive:

- Economist Online (http://www.economist.com)
- Financial Times (http://www.ft.com)
- CNN (http://www.cnn.com)
- BBC News (http://news.bbc.co.uk)
- Al Jazeera English (http://english.aljazeera.net)
Course Papers: The midterm and final examination will be 6-8 pages in length. Materials relating to format of the midterm and final examinations will be placed on the course website and will also be discussed in class. A handout for writing social sciences papers will be made available.

Late Assignments/Academic Integrity: Barring documented emergencies, no late assignments will be accepted. Additionally, a hard copy of each paper is required; e-mail attachments will not be accepted. While issues of plagiarism are not expected, course assignments are to be completed on an individual basis. Incidents of plagiarism will be dealt with according to department and university procedures. Please be advised that credit will NOT be given for any work found to violate university policies on academic integrity.

Course Conduct: We are aware that students face a variety of pressures during their academic careers. While we are sympathetic to the frustrations which arise from time to time we will NOT tolerate threatening, disrespectful or violent behavior aimed at the teaching staff, departmental staff, and/or other students. Please be aware that ANY behavior which violates university policy will be forwarded to relevant administrator or campus police for investigation.

Reading List (required):

- Beasley et al. Foreign Policy in Comparative Perspective 2nd edition
- Nye, The Future of Power
- Gelb, Power Rules
- Reserve/online readings (denoted by *)

Course Readings:
As this is an upper division course, required readings for the course are extensive. As course examinations will draw heavily from course readings and lecture material, students are strongly discouraged from depending solely on lecture material for course assignments as course assignments that show little evidence of familiarity with course readings will be penalized. Strategies for tackling academic readings can be found at: http://www.si.umich.edu/~pne/PDF/howtoread.pdf. Electronic versions of all readings from Foreign Affairs can be obtained via ROGER using the following URL: http://ucelinks.cdlib.org:8888/sfx_local?sid=SCP:SCP&genre=article&__char_set=utf8&issn=0015-7120. Please be advised that electronic versions of courses readings must be accessed from a UC location or through a proxy network.
