

ECONOMICS 140: ECONOMICS OF HEALTH PRODUCERS

Fall 2015, CSB 001, Tu-Th 11-12:20pm

Instructor: Dr. Melissa Famulari

e-mail: mfamulari@ucsd.edu

Office: Econ 221

Office Hours: Tu 12:30-1:00 and Th 9:30-10:45.

Teaching Assistant: Kaitlyn Lewis

e-mail: kelewis@ad.ucsd.edu

Office: Econ 117

Office Hours: Wednesday 2-4:00

Prerequisites: Econ 2 OR 100B

Course Objectives: This course applies microeconomic theory to the health care market with a particular focus on the providers in the health care sector (physicians, nurses, hospitals, pharmaceutical firms, and health insurers). We will examine where markets work efficiently and where it may be possible for government intervention to improve efficiency. We will use microeconomic models to predict how proposals to reform the market for health care will affect the incentives of health care providers and outcomes in health care markets. Where possible, we will examine the empirical research that tests the predictions from economic models.

Note: Econ 141 focuses on the consumer side of the health market: the demand for health and medical care, the demand for health insurance, proposals to address the uninsured, employer provision of health insurance and the effects on worker wages and decision to work, and international comparisons of health systems.

After passing this class you will be able to:

1. Apply microeconomics to the study of the suppliers in healthcare markets.
2. Analyze current policy issues in the U.S. healthcare system from an economic perspective. Our focus will be on policy issues associated with how Medicare, Medicaid, and private insurance plans pay healthcare providers, although we will also discuss health policy issues related to redistribution and social insurance.

Assessment: Your course grade will be based on the following: two in-class midterms worth 25% of your grade each, scheduled for Tuesday, October 20th and Tuesday, November 17. There are 7 reading quizzes with the top 5 scores worth 5% of your grade and a final exam worth 45% of your grade. The final exam is Wednesday, December 9 from 11:30-2:30pm.

Exam Schedule:

Midterm 1: October 20 (in class; 25% of course grade)

Midterm 2: November 17 (in class; 25% of course grade)

Comprehensive Final Exam: December 9 (11:30-2:30, location TBD, 45% of course grade)

Course Materials:

TED: This is where you access the syllabus, required articles, online quizzes, problems sets, your grades, a discussion board, announcements regarding review sessions, etc.

Reading Quizzes: Posted on TED on Friday and must be completed before 6:00am the following Tuesday. The only aid you can use are the assigned readings.

Practice Problem Sets: Posted on Friday and solutions available on TED the following Friday.

Additional Review Materials: Practice midterms and any additional practice exam questions will be posted on TED prior to the weekend preceding each exam.

Administrative Issues:

- (1) Exams are closed book: you may not use any notes, electronic devices, books or consult other classmates. If you believe an exam has not been graded properly, you may ask for a re-grade. I will re-grade your entire exam. The re-graded score will be your grade for the exam. You may not ask for another re-grade or go back to your first grade. To help maintain the integrity of the midterms and finals, we will require you to show your student ID when turning in your exam.
  - (2) Any student found responsible for violating academic integrity will earn a failing grade for the course. In addition to the academic sanction that I impose, the Council of Deans of Student Affairs will impose a disciplinary penalty. For a review of UCSD policy, please see <http://www-senate.ucsd.edu/manual/appendices/app2.htm>.
  - (3) If you have a documented disability, please bring your documentation and come to talk to me as soon as possible so that I can make suitable accommodations for you. If you believe that you may have a disability and will desire accommodation, please register with the Office for Students with Disabilities, Building 202 University Center

Week 3 (10/13, 10/15)

How Should We Pay Physicians: Assessing the Target Income and Cost-Shifting Hypotheses;

Primary Topics:

Review of Optimal Payment Policy
 Supplier-Induced-Demand
 The Target Income Hypothesis
     Labor Supply Interpretation
     Short Run vs. Long Run
     Billing Norms Interpretation
 The Cost-Shifting Hypothesis
     Bargaining Over Physicians’ Time
     Medicare’s Influence on Private Payment Systems
 Empirical Evidence
