Course Description

This class is a survey of historical and contemporary issues in Latino politics in the U.S.; race and ethnicity in the context of U.S. politics; comparisons of racial and ethnic group experiences in the U.S. with those experienced by racial and ethnic groups elsewhere; Latino access to the political system through political participation.

Course Policies

Attendance and Class Readings

Attendance and readings are mandatory. I will not take attendance, but it will be difficult to do well in the class if you do not attend lecture or only rely on the lecture notes. All readings for a given date should be done before the beginning of class.

Excuses Policy (extensions, make-up exams, etc.)

Extensions and make-up exams will be allowed on a case-by-case basis. You must have a medically documented reason for not being able to take an exam or turn in a graded assignment at the scheduled time. You will need to bring in supporting documentation to be granted a make-up, and if you do so, your final will count as your midterm grade. For example, instead of the final counting as 45% of your grade, it will now count for 80% of your grade should you miss the midterm.

Grades

You can retrieve your grades when we distribute the assignments and exams in class and/or during office hours. Grades will not be communicated via email or any other type of correspondence. It is your responsibility to retrieve your grades.

Please write your name on all the assignments as it is officially registered with the University Registrar. Otherwise, we may not be able to enter your grades properly.

Grade Appeals
You have one week after I return the exam/paper to appeal the grade. This deadline is firm, even if you did not pick up your assignment the day they were passed back in class. All appeals must be made to me, not the TAs. You must submit a one page, typed, double-spaced, statement explaining why you are requesting a grade appeal and justify it with evidence from your paper, exam, readings and lectures. If you choose to appeal your grade, I reserve the right to decrease the existing grade.

Communication

Email is the best way to communicate with myself and the teaching assistants. Please use the email addresses listed in the syllabus, as opposed to using TritonED (we do not check TritonEd correspondence). When writing an email, you must use your UCSD email address and include your full name and student ID. Doing so ensures that it arrives in our inbox and not into the Spam folder. In the subject line, please include the main reason for your email. We will do our best to respond to email correspondence within 24 hours Monday-Friday. If an email is sent during the weekend, we will likely not respond until Monday.

Tardiness to Exams

It is expected that you will arrive to exams on time. Arriving late to exams is a disruption for your colleagues and increases the probability that exam information has been shared. Students who arrive more than 20 minutes late will not be allowed to sit for the midterm. Exceptions to this policy will be made on a case-by-case basis.

Academic Honesty

Cheating, plagiarism and other violations of academic honesty are serious offenses. Graded assignments are not collaborative efforts in this class. You must work independently on all exams and papers. Please refer to the UCSD policy on integrity of scholarship for further details. If you are caught cheating in this course (this includes plagiarism), you will be awarded a letter grade of an F.

Required Readings

Grading

Midterm Exam (35%): This will be an in-class exam and will take place on November 6, 2018.

In-class assignments (20%): There will be two in-class assignments (each worth 10%) that will be distributed sometime during the quarter. Students who miss the in-class assignment may not make-up it for any reason unless there is a well-documented excuse for doing so (e.g. illness).
Final Exam (45%): The final is scheduled for December 12, 2018 from 11:30am- 2:30pm.
