Course Description: This course targets to analyze the principles of optimal resource allocation considering various types of market failures. After a short review on the market efficiency and monopoly, monopolistic competition and oligopoly is examined. Moreover, the market failures due to externalities and public goods are discussed in addition to the government role with respect to the market failure. Factor markets and informational issues are studied with the final discussion on the international trade and its welfare implication.

Administrative Issues:

- (1) If you have a documented disability, please bring your documentation and come to talk to me as soon as possible so that I can make suitable accommodations for you. If you believe that you have a disability and desire accommodation, please register with the Office for Students with Disabilities, Building 202 University Center as soon as possible. For information on the steps for academic accommodation, please see <http://www-senate.ucsd.edu/manual/appendices/app3.htm>.
- (2) Any student found guilty of academic dishonesty will earn a failing grade for the course. In addition to this academic sanction that I will impose, the Council of Deans of Student Affairs will also impose a disciplinary penalty. For a review of UCSD policy, please see <http://www-senate.ucsd.edu/manual/appendices/app2.htm>.
- (3) You will only need a pen or pencil for exams. Exams are closed book and you may not use notes. Exams are completely electronic-free: no calculators, headphones, cell phones, etc. are to be used during an exam.
- (4) If you arrive late to an exam, I will allow you to take the exam in the time that remains as long as no one has turned in his/ her exam and left the room. If a classmate has already turned in his/her exam and you arrive late, you will earn a zero on the test.
- (5) If you miss mid-term exam, you will get 0 point and there will be no makeup exam. If you have to miss a midterm for a University approved reason, the weight will be allocated to the final exam. In that case, you need to provide written proofs of your situation. The weights will not be reallocated for any reason.
- (6) UCSD now has automated waitlists. If you have any questions regarding adding or dropping the class, please refer to Triton Link at <https://tritonlink.ucsd.edu/portal/site/tritonlink-preview/menuitem.b4448692267a11256ec5e210514b01ca?storyID=17736%20> or contact the undergraduate advisors in Sequoyah Hall 245.
