

Economics 286F, Spring 2010

Graduate Research Presentation Workshop: Environmental Economics

Instructor: Mark Jacobsen
Email: m3jacobs@ucsd.edu
Office: Economics 223
Office Hours: By appointment

Workshop: Monday 11:30am - 1:20pm
(please see announcements for schedule of speakers)
Location: Sequoyah Hall 244

This workshop gives Economics graduate students studying topics related to natural resources and the environment an opportunity to present their work in progress and receive feedback. A broad range of topics is covered, relating to the measurement and control of environmental externalities and the efficient use of natural resources.

Requirements

Presentation of research in progress:

In addition to the presentation and accompanying slides, speakers will ideally also provide a draft of a written paper in progress.

Attendance at all workshops is expected, as are suggestions and contributions to the discussion as others present their work.