During the first class meeting we will break the class up into 3 groups of students:

Group # 1:

Group # 2:

Group # 3:

Group members will be responsible for reading and commenting on the drafts of all other group members. Each week please download the material from each of your group members due for that week from WebCT/Blackboard. Commented drafts are due back to the author a week later.

Featured students:

Please note that when you are a featured student for the week, your written work is due on Monday by 5pm (two days before our class meeting). Please post the weekly writing on WebCT/Blackboard.

If the featured students are in your group, you should provide detailed written comments and suggestions on the drafts and return to students by Wednesday's class.

If the featured students are not in your group, please read the drafts and give oral comments to the students during class on Wednesday.
