Course Description:
This course introduces students to the study of international politics. The actions and interactions of governments, groups and citizens is increasingly complex and interdependent. Knowledge of world affairs is a central element of the study of politics in the modern era. In this course, students will acquire the basic analytical tools necessary to understand and explain a variety of phenomena including war, terrorism, globalization, environmental cooperation, and human rights practices.

Course Requirements:
- Discussion Section (40% of course grade): An important part of the learning process in the course is manifest in discussion. Your section grade is apportioned as follows:
  - Attendance (10%): You are required to attend your assigned discussion section.
  - Participation (10%): Read assigned portions of the textbook on time, then come to section and discuss what you have learned. Ideas are best grasped in context. Section allows you to review historical and current events and participate in a good debate.
  - Quizzes (25%): Quizzes are designed to ensure that you keep up with the reading, and to assess your knowledge of key concepts. Each quiz will consist of a brief set of short, factual questions (True/false, multiple choice, fill in the blank) based on the text.
- Mid-term (25% of course grade): Essay exam, choice of questions. Bring exam book.
- Final Exam (30% of course grade): Essay exam, choice of questions. Bring exam book.

Student Standards:
- Plagiarism You are encouraged you to study and learn together. All assignments must be the sole product of the person submitting the work. Don’t cheat and don’t plagiarize. If you have any questions about what constitutes a violation of academic integrity, see me.
- Disabilities/life issues It is your responsibility to apprise me of factors that may interfere with your performance in class well in advance of scheduled assignments. Appropriate measures for disabilities, acts of God, etc. will be taken in accordance with UCSD policies.
- Grading/appeals All attempts to discuss grading decisions must be made in writing.

Readings:
The textbook for this course is available from the UCSD bookstore and elsewhere. Make sure to obtain the 3rd edition. My apologies for high textbook prices. You may purchase a used copy.

The W.W. Norton Student Studyspace for the World Politics textbook is available at: http://wwnorton.com/college/polisci/worldpolitics2/welcome.aspx. Here you will find study plans, chapter outlines, practice quizzes, and other pedagogical tools.
