POLI 100I: Inequalities in Participation and Representation
Winter 2018
MWF 10:00-10:50am

Professor: LaGina Gause (lgause@ucsd.edu)
Office: Social Sciences Building, Room 348
Office Hours: Wednesdays 11:00am – 12:00pm, or by appointment

Teaching Assistants:
Micah Farver (mfarver@ucsd.edu)
Office: Social Sciences Building, Room 345
Office Hours: Thursdays 12:00 – 1:00pm

Kristy Pathakis (kpathakis@ucsd.edu)
Office: Social Sciences Building, Room 448
Office Hours: Mondays 11:00am – 12:00pm

Course Description: In this course, students will explore inequalities in political participation and representation in the United States. Special attention will be paid to African Americans, as well as to ethnicity, class, and gender inequalities. As you engage the course materials each week, consider the implications of your own contributions to the equal and adequate participation and representation of groups in American politics. In particular, consider what ought to be the role of participation in a republic? How might your identity influence your ability to participate? How do you influence the participation of others? More broadly, how can the information you learn in this course be applied to other settings, including social, religious, and other political institutions?

This course is not intended to force students to reach specific conclusions but rather to expose you to a set of facts that enable you to ask new questions and consider old ones through a different lens. With that in mind, participation during class time is vital to the educational value of the course. Not only will you learn from the course materials and instruction, but also from the diverse perspectives and experiences with which each student enters the classroom.

By the end of the course, you should know facts about inequalities in participation and representation in American Politics. You should be able to use the information acquired in the course to make sense of political phenomena. And, you should be able to apply the knowledge and skills learned in the course to your own behavior and communities.

Required Materials
- Iclickers are required for this course to encourage your active learning and participation. Register your clicker in TritonEd to receive participation credit.
- Readings on course materials that are not easily accessible online will be available on TritonEd. Many reading materials are accessible online via www.libraries.ucsd.edu.
Course Assessment

- Weekly Assignments 15%
  - Syllabus Quiz (2%)
  - Think Pieces (4 total for 2% each)
  - Discussion or Clarification Questions (5 total for 1% each)
- Participation 20%
- Midterm Exam 30%
- Final Exam 35%

Assignments

- Weekly Assignments: There are 10 weekly assignments to be completed during the course. The weekly assignments are meant to prepare you for class discussions, so the assignments must be completed the night before class. Submit each weekly assignment by clicking on the assignment in the Weekly Assignments content folder in TritonEd. Only one weekly assignment can be submitted each week.
  - Syllabus Quiz – The first weekly assignment is a quiz on details in this syllabus. The quiz is to ensure that you have read and understand the syllabus. The quiz must be completed before class on January 17. You may attempt the quiz multiple times before January 17. The highest grade will be recorded.
  - Think Pieces – You are required to submit 4 short papers (250-500) during the quarter. At least 2 must be submitted before the midterm exam. These short assignments should not be a summary of the readings but it should be clear from the paper that the course materials were read. Each 250-500 word short paper should: (1) include a thesis statement in the first paragraph, (2) analyze the argument, evidence, methods or implications of at least one reading that has yet to be discussed in class, and (3) connect the reading with at least one other reading, a current event, or political phenomenon. I recommend that you write these think pieces to help you think about improving the participation and representation of marginalized groups. You may select any reading for the think piece but you must submit the think pieces to TritonEd by 10pm the night before the reading is to be discussed during class.
  - Questions – For 5 different weeks, you are required to submit 1 discussion or clarification question to TritonEd. The clarification question can be on something you read or that we’ve discussed in class. The discussion question can be regarding a topic you would like to be addressed during class. The questions must be submitted to TritonEd by 10pm the night before class.
- Participation – Throughout the course, I will give you in-class assignments that will contribute to your participation grade. I may also randomly call on students throughout the course to ensure that everyone has the opportunity to participate during class. Active participation will increase your engagement, reinforce learning, and allow you to learn from each other. Missing class frequently will hurt your participation grade.
- Midterm Exam – The midterm will assess your understanding of course concepts. Questions for the exam will be drawn from the readings and information presented during class. The midterm will consist of multiple choice, short answer, and identification questions. It is intended to gauge your understanding of all material from lectures, discussions, and readings.

Last Updated January 7, 2018
- Final Exam – The final exam will be given on Friday, March 23 from 8:00am to 10:59am. Bring a blue book. In the final exam, you will be asked to apply what you have learned in the course concerning inequalities in participation and representation in the United States. The final is cumulative. Your course readings, discussions, and assignments will help you prepare for the final.

Late Assignments and Make-Up Exams: Weekly assignments will not receive credit if late. There are three days most weeks to submit these assignments. So, plan accordingly. A make-up exam will only be granted under extraordinary circumstances and only with proper written documentation (e.g., doctors note). Please contact me as soon as possible so that we can make arrangements.

Grade Grievances: Any requests for a grade change must be submitted to me within 72 hours of the graded assignment being returned (regardless of whether you were present the day the assignment was returned). The written request must be typed and no longer than one page long. Your request for grade reconsideration should include a detailed explanation with evidence from course materials. I will review the entire assignment to determine whether the grade should be increased, decreased, or remain the same.

Academic Integrity: Any violation of UCSD’s academic integrity policy will result in failing this class. The policy can be consulted here: http://senate.ucsd.edu/Operating-Procedures/Senate-Manual/Appendices/2.

Sexual Misconduct/Title IX Statement: UC San Diego prohibits sexual violence and sexual harassment and will respond promptly to reports of misconduct. If you wish to speak confidentially about an incident of sexual misconduct, please contact CARE at the Sexual Assault Resources Center at (858) 534-5793. Students should be aware that faculty members are considered responsible employees and are not a confidential resource; as such, if you disclose an incident of sexual misconduct to a faculty member, they have an obligation to report it to UC San Diego’s Title IX office, the Office for the Prevention of Harassment & Discrimination (OPHD). To learn more about sexual misconduct, visit: https://students.ucsd.edu/sponsor/sarc/index.html. To report an incident to the University, please contact OPHD at ophd@ucsd.edu
Course Readings

I. Citizens and Democratic Representation

January 8 – Introductions

January 10 – Foundations of Participation in American Democracy
Discussion Question: How democratic is American democracy in principle and practice?
- Madison, Federalist Papers No. 10
- Dahl (1961 and 1956) Excerpts from Who Governs and A Preface to Democratic Theory

January 12 – Citizen Competency
Discussion Question: Can ordinary citizens promote a healthy democracy?

January 15 – No Class: Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday

January 17 – Heuristics and Attentiveness
Discussion Question: How do ordinary citizens know how to participate?

January 19 – Nonvoters and Voters
Discussion Question: Do voters and nonvoters vary in their political preferences?

II. Determinants of Participation

January 22 – Costs to Participation
Discussion Question: How do costs explain variations in political participation?

January 24 – Institutional Barriers to Participation
Discussion Question: How do institutions influence who participates?

January 26 – Voter Disenfranchisement
Discussion Question: What are the effects of voter disenfranchisement on participation?

January 29 – Immigrants and Noncitizens
Discussion Question: How does participation vary for immigrants and noncitizens?

January 31 – Political Efficacy and Trust
Discussion Question: What internally motivates participation?

February 2 – Race, Political Efficacy and Trust
Discussion Question: How does race influence individuals’ levels of participation?

February 5 – Social Networks
Discussion Question: How do social networks influence participation rates?

February 7 – Political Socialization
Discussion Question: How does political socialization influence differences in political participation?

February 9 – Midterm

III. Mobilization

February 12 – Party Mobilization

Discussion Question: How do political parties influence voter turnout?

February 14 – Political Mobilization

Discussion Question: What other methods influence turnout?

February 16 - Political Communication

Discussion Question: How does framing and campaign ads influence whether and how people vote?

February 19 – No Class: Presidents’ Day Holiday

February 21 – Negative Campaigning

Discussion Question: What are the effects of negative campaigns?

IV. Representation

February 23 – Constituency Contact and Representation

Discussion Question: How do legislators choose who to represent?
February 26 – Unequal Representation
Discussion Question: How does who is in office influence whose interests are represented?

V. Mass Participation and Protest
February 28 – Social Movement Outcomes
Discussion Question: What are the effects of social movements?

March 2 – Protest and Representation
Discussion Question: How does protest improve the participation and representation of marginalized groups?
- Gause, LaGina. “Resources, Protest, and Legislative Behavior”

Descriptive Representation
March 5 – The Case for Descriptive Representation
Discussion Question: Should black people represent black people and women represent women?

March 7 – Class
Discussion Question: How does the social class of legislators matter for the equal representation of the public?

VI. Towards Better Representation
March 9 - Race and Gender
Discussion Question: Are minorities able to better represent minorities?

March 12 – Organized Interests
Discussion Question: Can interest groups improve representation?

March 14 – Electoral Reforms
Discussion Question: Are election reforms effective?

March 16 – The Internet as the Great Equalizer?
Discussion Question: Do digital technologies improve pathways to participation?  