Course Philosophy and Environment

We'll work together to create an equitable and inclusive environment of mutual respect where we all feel comfortable to ask questions, challenge our understanding, and share moments of confusion, reflection, and growth. All students should be able to succeed in this course. If you feel that this is not the case for you, please let me know.

Accommodations

If you need accommodations for this course due to a disability, please contact the Office for Students with Disabilities at osd@ucsd.edu for an Authorization for Accommodation letter. Please speak with me in the first week of class (or as soon as you join class) if you intend to apply for accommodations or have existing accommodations. For more information, visit disabilities.ucsd.edu.

Subject to Change Policy

Changes to this syllabus might be made during the quarter to enhance student learning. If changes are made, they will be reflected on the syllabus and Canvas.

Academic Integrity

This course is designed for your personal and professional growth. You won't benefit if others do your work in any way. All work submitted in this course must be your own and produced exclusively for this course. It is your responsibility to know what constitutes academic misconduct at UC San Diego. Please review UC San Diego's definition of academic misconduct and policy on the Integrity of Scholarship: academicintegrity.ucsd.edu. Use this link to report cheating if you become aware of it.

Letter of Recommendation Policy

I am open to writing letters of recommendation. Please email me at mhoon@ucsd.edu to make your request at least two weeks in advance and provide your resume, your qualities you'd like to be reflected in the letter, and a link to the program you're applying to or the job description. In order for me to write a letter of recommendation, I'll need to be able to write in depth about your academic, personal and professional qualities that I've observed. This means you must consistently demonstrate these qualities in class and outside of class.

Technology Policy

Students are not permitted to use websites other than Canvas, unless instructed otherwise, during class or use mobile phones in class, except for in the case of an emergency.

Course Assessment

Your active participation, attendance and punctuality is crucial for your success in this course because it is designed to facilitate your personal growth and professional development, which cannot be achieved without you sharing your thoughts and asking questions in class. Your grade consists of your attendance, participation, weekly assignments and final mock interview with an industry professional.

A Typical Week In this Course

- Prior to attending class each week, review the guest speaker/s on LinkedIn and the topic and come prepared to class with questions to ask guest speakers. Please come up with new questions each week that are unique to the guest speaker and topic.
- You'll complete one assignment each week, which is typically an opportunity for you to apply what you learned in class that week, due Sunday by 11:59 p.m.
- This is the structure for classes:
 - Roll call/attendance check. Arrive to class on time. Depending on class size, the first five minutes of class might include a roll call. If you arrive to class after roll call, check in with me after class so you can get half credit for attendance that day.
 - PowerPoint presentation on weekly career development topic
 - Q&A with guest speakers. Please come to class prepared with questions for guest speakers.
 - In-class activity (occasional) to give you the chance to practice what you're learning in class, sometimes with feedback from guest speakers and classmates.

Late Assignment Policy

Late assignments, no matter how late, are eligible for no more than half credit. If a circumstance such as illness arises that prevents you from submitting an assignment on time, send me a message on Canvas with an explanation and documentation of your circumstance and I will determine if you are eligible to submit the assignment late for up to full credit.

Course Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites.

Required Textbooks and Purchases

No textbooks or other purchases are required for this course.

Course Requirements

1. Cameras are required to be on for your final mock interview that will be conducted via Zoom.
2. Attendance is required. If you are late to class (after I close the door) you will receive half credit for attendance. If a circumstance such as illness arises that prevents you from attending class, send me a message on Canvas with an explanation and documentation of your circumstance and I will determine if you are eligible for an excused absence.
3. Participate in class discussions. Attendance and participation is one quarter of your grade in this class.

4. Come to class with questions to ask guest speakers. Prior to each class, look up the class topic and guest speaker/s on LinkedIn to come up with your questions. Please come up with new questions each week that are unique to the guest speaker and topic.

Recommendations

1. Write each guest speaker a thank you note via LinkedIn or via email if you have their email address. You'll receive extra credit for this.
2. Wear business casual or business professional attire to class to “dress for success” to make a strong and positive first impression with guest speakers.
3. Use a UC San Diego virtual background for your final mock interview.
